Close An adverb is a word that modifies verbs, adjectives and other adverbs. Adverbs vs Adjectives The difference between an adverb and an adjective is the following: An adjective modifies a noun. Example: "John is tall." (The adjective tall modifies the noun John) An adverb modifies a verb, an adjective or another adverb. Examples: "That idea is simply ridiculous." (The adverb simply modifies the adjective ridiculous) "She sings nicely." (The adverb nicely modifies the verb sing) "She did it really well." (The adverb really modifies the adverb well) Read the passage: Mrs Smith immediately called the police when she saw the criminals assaulting the poor boy aggressively. It was the most horrible scene that she had ever witnessed in her life. She had always lived peacefully in that neighborhood. No one had ever disturbed her quiet nights there. The words " immediately, aggressively, peacefully, ever, always, there" are adverbs. What are the different types of adverbs? Basically, most adverbs tell you how, in what way, when, where, and to what extent something is done. In other words, they describe the manner, place, or time of an action. Here are some examples: He speaks quietly. (quietly is an adverb of manner: I live here. (here is an adverb of place.) We'll leave tomorrow. (tomorrow is an adverb of time.) She never sleeps late. (never is an adverb of frequency.) Adverb rules: 1. Regular adverbs: Adverbs in English often end in -ly. These adverbs are formed by adding -ly to the end of an adjective. Examples: Adjective Adverbs slowly beautifully beautifully carefully fully violently violently Spelling rules: true → truly (the silent e is dropped and add ly) happy → happily (y becomes i and add ly.) possible → possibly (e after a consonant is dropped and ly is added.) full → fully (after ll and add y is added.) fanatic → fanatically (after adjectives ending in -ic add -ally - there is an exception: public-publicly) 2. Exceptions: However, this is not the only way to form an adverb. Many adverbs do not end in -ly. This is a list of adverbs that don't follow the rule: Adjective Adverb fast fast hard hard late late early early daily daily daily Some adjectives change their form when they become adverbs: 3. Things to remember: Many words are not adverbs although they end in -ly. Here are examples of adjectives that end in -ly. Examples: a kindly teacher a lonely girl an elderly person a friendly policeman To decide whether a word is an adverb ask questions with how, where and when. How does James speak Spanish? He speaks Spanish fluently. Where do the kids play soccer? They play soccer here. When did she write the email to her husband? She wrote the email immediately. If you add an adverb it will solve this problem: "He ran quickly" gives us more information and sounds better. Adverbs of Manner always come after a verb and can be used with words like very or too. Adverbs of Manner are adjectives that almost always end with -ly, though some are also irregular.
